A Growing Number of Veterans Join VA’s Workforce

Who Hires Veterans?
The Department of Veterans Affairs is one of the largest federal employers of Veterans. Approximately 1/3 of Veterans in non-Defense federal agencies work at VA.

What Jobs?
Hiring Veterans is a priority. In 2012, 88% of VA’s new claims processor hires were Veterans.

Why Veterans?
With thousands of Servicemembers transitioning to civilian life, VA is handling more disability claims than ever. Many of VA’s claims are reviewed and rated by men and women who also served—54% of VA’s total claims processors are Veterans.

What Background?
All Veterans offer a unique set of skills and experience. In 2012, 56% of VA’s newly hired claims processors were service-disabled Veterans.
