

Dependency and Indemnity Compensation (DIC)

What is Dependency and Indemnity Compensation?

Dependency and Indemnity Compensation (DIC) is a monthly benefit. It is paid to eligible survivors of:

- Service members who died while on active duty, active duty for training or inactive duty training, OR
- Veterans who died as a result of a service-connected injury or disease, OR
- Veterans who did not die as a result of a service-connected injury or disease, but were totally disabled by a service-connected disability:
  - For at least 10 years before death, OR
  - Since their release from active duty and for at least five years before death, OR
  - For at least one year before death, if they were a former prisoner of war and died after Sept. 30, 1999.

Who is eligible?

Surviving Spouses

You may be eligible for DIC benefits if you are a surviving spouse who:

- Married a Service member who died on active duty, active duty for training or inactive duty training, OR
- Married the deceased Veteran before Jan. 1, 1957, OR
- Married a Veteran who died from a service-connected injury or disease, as long as the marriage began within 15 years of discharge, OR
- Married the deceased Veteran for at least one year, OR
- Had a child with the Veteran and cohabitated with the Veteran until their death.
  - Note: If you have a child with the Veteran but were separated, you must not be at fault for the separation and not be remarried in order to be eligible.
    - Note: If you remarried on or after Dec. 16, 2003 and were at least 57 years old, you may still be eligible.

Surviving Children

If you are a surviving child, you may be eligible for DIC if the Veteran parent:

- Died in the line of duty, OR
- Died as a result of a service-connected injury or disease.

You also must be unmarried and either:

- Under the age of 18, OR
- Between the ages of 18 and 23 and currently attending school.

Certain helpless adult children may also be eligible. You can call 800-827-1000 for eligibility requirements.

Parents

If you are a surviving parent, you may be eligible for DIC if the Veteran child:

- Died in the line of duty, OR
- Died as a result of a service-connected injury or disease.
