The VetSuccess on Campus (VSOC) program helps Servicemembers, Veterans and eligible dependents succeed in their educational goals. The program provides on-campus benefits assistance and counseling. The goals of the program are to:

- Help participants complete their education
- Help participants move on to viable careers

The VSOC program operates in concert with VA’s education and career counseling program, or Chapter 36 authority. It is administered by VA’s Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment (VR&E) program. Participants in VSOC receive a wide range of educational and vocational counseling services. These services provide personalized support to:

- Guide career paths
- Ensure effective use of VA benefits
- Achieve educational goals
- Achieve career goals

On-Campus Benefits Assistance and Counseling

Each VSOC school is assigned an experienced Vocational Rehabilitation Counselor (VRC). VSOC Counselors ensure student Veterans receive necessary support and assistance. This helps them pursue their education and employment goals.
The VSOC program began in 2009 at the University of South Florida. You can find a full list of the VSOC schools at https://www.benefits.va.gov/vocerehab/vsoc.asp.
