

VALERI Special Announcement

June 11, 2019

The integration issues with our backend server have been resolved and the VALERI application is available.

Sorry for any inconvenience this may have caused. Thank you for your cooperation and patience during this time of transition.

VALERI will be offline tonight, Tuesday June 11, 2019, from 8:00PM EST – 12:00AM EST to complete a scheduled release. During this time, it is important that ALL VALERI users be logged out of the system. Please note that any user-generated system activity will not be processed by VALERI during this time.
