Alaska Native Veteran Program of 2019

John D. Dingell, Jr., Conservation, Management, and Recreation Act of 2019

SEPTEMBER 2020 UPDATE | The BLM mailed 1,975 eligibility notices between July and September, with about 270 records still pending eligibility determination by the VA. Final rules are being developed based on comments received in August. This means the application period could begin as early as December, 60 days after final regulations are published. Virtual public meetings were held in July, and a recording is available to view. BIA still suspects it has outdated mailing addresses for many of those eligible and is asking for your help ensuring potentially eligible veterans and their heirs know about the program. Get the latest updates, a map of available lands for selection, and answers to frequently asked questions about the program: at www.blm.gov/alaska/2019AKNativeVetsLand. More information on back.
