

Stephanie Schader has more than 20 years of experience in the housing finance industry, working in both the government and private sectors. She is the Program Development Manager in Ginnie Mae's Office of Issuer & Portfolio Management and is responsible for MBS program policy and product enhancements; strategic alignment with partner agencies; and implementation of enterprise priorities. Her expertise includes policy and regulatory development, analysis, monitoring and the development of training and presentations related to policy updates and revisions. Prior to joining Ginnie Mae, Stephanie served in the Office of Single Family Program Development at FHA. Her private sector experience includes all phases of mortgage loan production including management of origination production, processing, compliance, licensing, underwriting, closing, shipping and servicing.

Stephanie has a Master's in Business Administration from Virginia Tech and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics from the University of Colorado.