

Alberto Planas

Alberto Planas currently serves as the Assistant Director of Oversight for the Loan Guaranty Program, overseeing the work of VA's eight regional loan centers, lenders and servicers that participate in the VA Home Loan program, and VA's contract for its Real Estate Owned (REO) and Portfolio Servicing Contract (RPSC).

Alberto started with Loan Guaranty Service as a Presidential Management Fellow in 2005. Since that time, he served in progressively responsible positions on the Director's Staff and the Oversight group in the Loan Guaranty Service Central Office in Washington, DC.

Alberto served over 21 years as a citizen soldier in the Air Force National Guard, including on active duty in support of Operation Southern Watch and Operation Iraqi Freedom/Operation Enduring Freedom. He retired from the Air Force National Guard in July 2013 as a First Sergeant.

Alberto is originally from New Orleans, LA. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Communications from Southeastern Louisiana University & a Master's degree in Business Administration (Finance) from the University of New Orleans. Alberto currently lives in the Nashville, TN area with his wife and two children.